

Donor's Bill of Rights

When you give, be sure your selected charity employs standards and policies that assure you of a "bill of rights" as a donor.

You have the right to:

- know how the funds of an organization are being spent
- know what the programs you support are accomplishing
- know that the organization is in compliance with applicable laws and regulations
- restrict or designate your gifts to a particular project within the organization's mission objectives
- a timely and courteous response to your inquiries about finances and programs
- visit office and program sites of an organization to talk personally with the staff
- give cheerfully without being pressured by the organization
- obtain a copy of the organization's most recent annual financial statements
